

BALIK PULAU

Balik Pulau Roundabout
Small in size yet big in history, this must-see landmark was the town's public pump as well as water trough for elephants and horses in the 18th century. The monument was built in 1882 by a wealthy farmer, Koh Seang Tatt to commemorate the visit of the Governor of Melaka, Sir Frederick Weld to Balik Pulau. The roundabout marks the convergence of three main roads from different parts of the island.

Surrounded by scenic landscape, Balik Pulau is a township at the southwest of Penang island. Its name in Bahasa Malaysia translates to "the other side of the island" which reflects its geographical position on the island.

With numerous natural attractions such as farms, orchards and paddy fields dotted throughout Balik Pulau, picturesque views are aplenty. The one and only Balik Pulau Roundabout is a must-see landmark as it is small in size yet big in history. Built in 1882 to commemorate the visit of Sir Frederick Weld (Governor of Melaka), this is where three main roads converge.

Another prominent landmark is the Church of the Holy Name of Jesus. Built in 1854, it is one of the oldest churches in Penang. Over the years, this Roman Catholic church underwent a series of renovations comprising the nave, sanctuary, two wings, stained-glass windows, bell tower and tenor bell. Today, it has a splendid architectural design.

Balik Pulau Market is a must-visit spot where there are food stalls as well as a wet market and dry goods section. Breakfast delicacies, fresh fruits, preserved fruits, meat and sundry goods are readily available here. Among the most sought after products are nutmegs, cloves, fish crackers, juice and coconut. Meanwhile, the food court serves local favourites such as assam laksa, char koay teow, pasembur and wan tan mee.

These attractions combined with the colonial era buildings, traditional fishing villages and Malay houses contribute to the rich historical charm of this quaint township. The emergence of modern developments can be seen with more coming up in the future. As such, Balik Pulau gives visitors a taste of old school Penang charm without compromising a slower and more relaxing pace of life.

DELICIOUS & DIVERSE FLAVOURS

Laksa
The noodles are served with various ingredients such as shredded fish, cucumbers and onions. Steaming hot spicy soup is added to this mixture, giving it a delectable taste that will linger long after the last spoonful.

With freshly grown fruits, vegetables and spices widely available year-round, Balik Pulau contributes to Penang's reputation as the food capital of Malaysia. These produce enhance the delightful taste of popular traditional dishes. Whether you're in the mood for some local favourites or delicious seafood, it's all here for your indulgence!

If you're looking to get a taste of local flavour, be sure to have some laksa! This famous Penang noodle soup delivers an irresistible mix of sweet, sour and spicy flavours that will make you come back for more. Soft and chewy, the flavoured laksa is complemented by savoury broth and vegetable garnishes such as shallots and lettuces. Kim Seng Kopitiam and Laksa Pokok Janggus are some of the places that serve the best laksa. Want a light snack? Try the black sugar buns in Balik Pulau!
